

YAD VASHEM CRITERIA FOR “RIGHTEOUS AMONG THE NATIONS”

ECHOES & REFLECTIONS

TEACHING THE HOLOCAUST. INSPIRING THE CLASSROOM.

CRITERIA

The criteria for awarding the honor “Righteous Among the Nations,” determined by the public committee of Yad Vashem, are as follows:

- An attempt that included the active involvement of the rescuer to save a Jew regardless of whether the attempt(s) ended in success or failure
- Acknowledged mortal risk to the rescuer during the endeavor — during the Nazi regime, the warnings clearly stated that whoever extended a hand to assist Jews placed not only their own life at risk, but also the lives of their loved ones
- Humanitarian motives as the primary incentive — the rescuer must not have received material compensation as a condition of their actions
- There must be testimonial support by the rescued person or archival material concerning the deed
