JEWISH VICTIMS BY COUNTRY

Notes

- Different numbers for Jewish victims are used by other reputable sources. The reason for this is that there were different country borders at different times during the Holocaust (for example, in Bulgaria and Hungary).

- The total number of victims for the Soviet Union does not reflect the fact that in areas that were under Nazi control, approximately 90% of the Jewish population was murdered.

© University College of London, Centre for Holocaust Education, adapted with permission