On the twenty-seventh day of the month Nissan, in the year five thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven corresponding to the twenty-second of April in the year two thousand and seventeen in the city of Kingston, New York the beloveds Kara Rachel Greenwald and Andrew Mitchell Flak entered into this Covenant of Marriage.

We pledge to nurture, trust and respect each other throughout our married life together. We shall be open and honest, understanding and accepting, loving and forgiving, and loyal to one another.

We promise to work together to build a harmonious relationship of equality. We shall respect each other's uniqueness and help one another grow to our fullest potential. We will comfort and support each other through life's joys and sorrows.

Together, we shall create a welcoming and tolerant home filled with learning, laughter and compassion, a home wherein we will honor each other's cherished family traditions and values.

We will communicate openly, be friends, partners and protectors. We will permit each other to become the people we are yet to be. We will work to maintain peace, balance and closeness.

All of this we take upon ourselves to uphold to the best of our abilities. All is valid and binding.
