

French Republic

Ministry of Higher Education, Research and Innovation
Sorbonne University

DOCTORATE

In view of the Education decree, and its article L.613-1:

Considering the ministerial order of July 26th, 2019 concerning the accreditation of Sorbonne University to issue national diplomas;

Having regard to the supporting documents produced by Ms Nadia BEN ABDALLAH, born on April 12th, 1991 in TUNIS (TUNISIA) in view of her registration for the doctorate;

Considering the minutes of the Jury attesting that the interested party has defended on September the 17th, 2020 a doctoral thesis on the following topic:

Oscillatory Dynamics of the hippocampo-cortical dialogue underlying memory formation and consolidation,

Prepared within the doctoral school Brain-Cognition and Behavior under the direction of MICHAEL ZUGARO, in front of a jury presided by NATHALIE LERESCHE and composed by XAVIER LEINEKUGEL, FRANCESCA SARGOLINI, MICHAEL ZUGARO;

Considering the jury's deliberation;

The diploma of DOCTORATE in Brain-Cognition and Behavior is awarded to Ms. NADIA BENABDALLAH

for the academic year 2019-2020

and confers Doctoral degree,

to enjoy the rights and prerogatives attached to it.

Done the 28th of June 2021

The President

Jean CHAMBAZ

