

Levi Morrow

053-422-8100 levidmorrow@gmail.com 39/9 Hizkiyahu HaMelekh Jerusalem, IL 9319008

Profile

I am a semikhah student at the Shehebar Sephardic Center and in my last year of a Bachelors of Education in Tanakh and Jewish Philosophy at Herzog Academic College. My focuses include Faith in the thought of Rav Shagar and, at the moment, Nevi'im Rishonim. I also write essays on Tanakh, philosophy, theology, etc., posted at dafaleph.com and on my personal blog, levimorrow.wordpress.com.

Experience

NON-ACADEMIC TRANSLATIONS

1. <https://kavvanah.wordpress.com/2017/05/14/love-and-law-rav-shagar-on-religious-zionism-2005/>
2. <https://kavvanah.wordpress.com/2017/03/08/on-the-joke-of-the-megillah-by-rav-shagar/>

EDUCATION WORK

NIGHT-SEDER EDUCATOR, KEMACH INSTITUTE; JERUSALEM, IL – 2015-2016

Taught Hasidic thought in general, and Habad thought in specific, with a focus on existential relevance.

SHIUR TEACHER, CAMP STONE; SUGAR GROVE, PA – SUMMER 2012 & 2013

Gave daily shiurim on Tanakh and Jewish history, with a focus on political philosophy and existential relevance.

Education

Herzog Academic College, Israel – BEd, 2017

Skills

- Proficiency in and familiarity with Tanakh and wide variety of philosophical sources, Jewish and otherwise.
- Translation from Hebrew to English