

Personal Details

Name: Natalie Page
Address: 5 Even Gvirol St., Tel Aviv
Phone: 052-6493807
Email: pagenat@gmail.com

Education

2014–2017: MBA (specializing in marketing and strategy), Tel Aviv University, Israel
2009–2010: English Text Editing Diploma, Beit Berl College, Israel
2004–2005: Master of Arts in Media and Communications (Global Journalism), University of Melbourne, Australia
2002–2003: Honors in Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, Monash University, Australia
“Purification and characterization of three recombinant fragments of MASP-2 (Mannan Binding Lectin Associated Serin Protease 2)”
Supervisor: Prof. Robert N. Pike
Class I Honors
1997–2001: Bachelor of Science in Life Sciences and English Literature (double major), Tel Aviv University, Israel

Employment

2006–present: Freelance Scientific Editor, Writer and Grant Writing Consultant

- Assisting in the preparation of ERC and other grants
- Scientific editing of manuscripts
- Preparing books, brochures and marketing materials for publication
- Writing and editing marketing and donor-related documents
- Writing health articles, in Hebrew, for Laisha magazine
- Writing newspaper articles on culture, trade and finance, education, and lifestyle for Haaretz English Edition, including a Tel Aviv tourist guide
- Writing financial articles, in Hebrew, for the periodical of the Israeli Association of Publicly Traded Companies
- Editing Internet websites and online scientific information
- Translating documents and online materials

2016–2021: Scientific Editor and Grant Consultant: Research Grants and Projects Office, Weizmann Institute of Science

- Editing competitive, peer-reviewed grants (e.g., ERC, ITN, ISF) and collaborative grants
- Providing consultation as to how to improve the content and attractiveness of grant applications

2007–2015: Science Writer: Department of Resource Development, Weizmann Institute of Science

- Writing and editing donor and philanthropic-grant proposals
- Writing, editing, and translating promotional and scientific content, mostly in English, but also in Hebrew
- Preparing and overseeing the production of publications and pamphlets
- Communicating with scientists, internal departments, and external and associated entities
- Organizing enrichment activities for the staff

Additional Information

Languages: English (native), Hebrew (native), and Spanish (basic)

Additional coursework: Photography, scriptwriting, economics, and education courses, as well as postgraduate courses in biology, chemistry, and physics

References and writing samples will be provided upon request.