

PROFILE SIMONE SALO

- Domicile: Bonn, Germany
- Nationality: German and Finnish
- Language combination:
  - A = German and Finnish
  - B = Spanish
  - C = English
- Member of VKD (German Association of Conference Interpreters), BDÜ (German Association of Translators and Interpreters) and SKTL (Finnish Association of Translators and Interpreters)
- Childhood and school career both in Germany and Finland (two mother languages)
- Studies abroad in Spain at the Universities of La Rioja and La Laguna (2 years)
- Various stays and internships in the USA, New Zealand and Australia
- University degrees:
  - M.A. in Spanish, English, and Business at the University of Bonn, Germany
  - European Masters in Conference Interpreting (EMCI) at the University of Graz, Austria
- 2006 - 2007: Teacher of conference interpreting at the Universities of Turku and Tampere, Finland
- 2008 - 2010: Research associate at the University of Bonn, Germany
- Since 2011 full-time freelance conference interpreter and translator