

Richard Lambert Curriculum Vitae

Contact

3/2, 711 Cathcart Road
Glasgow
G42 8UA

richardjlambert@gmail.com
+ 44 (0)7754 912 386

Education

University of Warwick, 2010 – 2015

Doctoral studies in French and German philosophy, with a thesis on G.W.F. Hegel and Jacques Derrida.

University of Heidelberg, March – July 2013

Visiting student at the Philosophisches Seminar.

University of Warwick, 2006 – 2007

MA in Continental Philosophy, awarded with Distinction.

King's College London, 2002 – 2005

BA in Philosophy: First Class Honours.
Recipient of the Simon Dally Award.

Exeter College, 2001 – 2002

Diploma in Foundation Studies in Art and Design.

Employment History

October 2013 –

Freelance translator and editor based in Germany, France, and the UK. Editing and translation from French and German on behalf of agencies including Cadenza Academic Translations, Textworks, WordSolid, and Supertext, as well as publishing houses and institutions such as the MIT Press, Bloomsbury, and the University of Hamburg.

- Translation of websites, promotional texts, articles, historical documents, project proposals and reports, in areas including philosophy, sociology, film, history, the arts, education studies, economics, advertising, marketing, tourism, and the environment.
- Translation of two books: Peter Trawny's On Freedom: Technology, Capital, Medium (Bloomsbury, 2017) and German Philosophy, a dialogue between Jean-Luc Nancy and Alain Badiou (MIT Press, 2018).
- Editing/proofreading English-language texts and texts translated from French and German.

November 2019 – September 2022

Journal specialist at Frontiers Media. As part of the Humanities and Social Sciences team, I was responsible for the day-to-day running of the journal Frontiers in Communication. My responsibilities included commissioning special issues, editing calls for papers, managing ongoing article collections, supporting guest editors and authors, expanding and managing editorial boards and liaising with chief editors.

January 2012 – April 2012

Teaching assistant at the University of Warwick, England

- Seminars on the philosophy of photography.

May 2009 – August 2010

Freelance translator/editor, Berlin, Germany

- Translation and editing of academic and commercial texts on behalf of numerous agencies and private clients, including proofreading.de.

October 2008 – August 2010

Freelance English teacher, Berlin, Germany

- Language teaching at various companies, higher education institutions, and language schools.

October 2007 – April 2008

English language teaching assistant at the IUFM de Franche-Comté, Besançon, France.

Languages (Common European Framework)

- German: C2
- French: C1
- Portuguese: B1