PROFILE

I am an English-Ukrainian/Russian full-time freelance translator based in Ukraine. I started my translation career in 2007 (10+ years of translation experience). My main fields of expertise are Business & Marketing, Travel & Tourism, Electronics. However, my expertise is not limited to these areas.

In order to provide an accurate translation, I spend all my resources and energy working quickly and efficiently. I always take my work seriously and can provide professional credentials and references. I'm willing to invest time and energy in learning more about a new field. I'm aware of my own capabilities and limitations. I will not take on a job if I cannot do it completely. It's my perfectionist side and professional too.
