
TAMAR KOGMAN

+972-549249966
tamar@woobling.org

6/1 Pinsker
Jerusalem
9222801
Israel

DoB: 3rd March, 1989

Experience

Research Associate at NGO Monitor — 2015-2018

Detailed reports and analyses, briefings and factsheets, academic research, translations, editing, preparing and delivering presentations.

Teaching Assistant, She'arei Mishpat College — 2015-2017

Courses on the EU and EU-Israel relations.

Research Assistant, Hebrew University — 2015

Text encoding, use of Atlas.Ti software.

Piano Teacher, English Tutor — 2009-2015

Military Service, IDF, Intelligence Force — 2007-2009

Education

Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Department of History — 2018-present

PhD Candidate in German intellectual history

Hebrew University of Jerusalem, M.A in European Studies — 2015-2016

magna cum laude

Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance, B.Mus — 2010-2014

magna cum laude (Classical Piano Performance)

Scholarships and Awards

Dean's List, Faculty of Social Sciences, Hebrew University — 2015, 2016

European Forum at the Hebrew University — 2015, 2016

Yearly stipend for academic excellence

Ministry for Education, Israel — 2007

Award for outstanding matriculation project

Conference Papers and Presentations

Kogman Tamar, Gerald Steinberg, and Becca Wertmann, "Emerging Public Discourse on EU Funding to NGOs and Possible Implications for EU- Israel Relations," 25th Annual Conference of the Israeli Association for the Study of European Integration, October 2017. Presentation available online.

Publications

"Are NGOs Immune to Conflicts of Interest?," Euractiv, 2017; "Von Zweien, die sich gesucht und gefunden haben", Novo Argumente, 2017

Languages

Hebrew, English — fluent; German — academic level (C1)
