

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Dorot Fellowship in Israel
Fellow

Jerusalem, Israel
August 2018-June 2019

- Planned and led five leadership development and strategy seminars for 11 fellows
- Managed a programming budget of $37,000, including cashflow, logistics, and payment of speakers
- Directed interview and research projects exploring the relationship between religious, ethnic, and political identity. These projects included study of traditional and modern Jewish political thought as well as interviews with contemporary religious leaders and political activists
- Created an after-school program in Hebrew language tutoring for children of foreign workers at the Saint Rachel Center for Catholic foreign workers in Jerusalem
- Studied Spoken Palestinian Arabic and participated in several weeks of immersive learning in Dalyat-al-Karmel, Israel
- Created learning projects dedicated to personal development through study and practice of mind/body meditation and workshops on emotional vulnerability

Rina Ne'eman Hebrew Language Services
Translator and Editor

East Brunswick, NJ
June-August 2018

- Engaged and built relationships with incoming customers to find translation and editing solutions
- Translated and edited legal documents, economic reports, government policy memoranda

Reut Institute
Analyst and Director of Internship Programs

Tel Aviv, Israel
October 2016-May 2018

- Initiated and managed operations for a month-long speaking tour covering multiple US cities, generating revenue and resulting in stronger organizational relationships. Presented at the Brookings Institution, three national conferences, and 10 Jewish communal organizations
- Organized and presented at 15 consulting and crisis management seminars to Israeli leadership groups
- Managed strategic client-facing relationships and consulted for three Israeli government ministries, the Israeli National Security Council, the Jewish Agency, and several Israeli NGO's
- Launched and coordinated data-based research teams on Israeli policy issues: technology and economic development for the Municipality of Tel Aviv; regulation in the Israeli NGO sector; national security implications of the Israel-Diaspora relationship; emerging trends in Israeli foreign and economic policy
- Researched and co-authored a public policy paper entitled: "The Future of the Nation State of the Jewish People"
- Hired and directed a diverse team of five research interns; training the interns in leadership, research methodology, technical skills, and project management

Democratic National Committee
Office of Public Engagement Intern

Philadelphia, PA
June-July 2016

- Led a dedicated communications team, created content, and planned several public policy programs for the American Jewish constituency attending the Democratic National Convention

BRANDEIS UNIVERSITY,
Bachelor of Arts magna cum laude, Politics, Near Eastern and Judaic Studies
Lerman-Neubauer Fellowship (scholarship and grant awarded for excellence in research)

Waltham, MA
2016

Social Media & Community Management · Native Fluency in Hebrew and English · Proficient in Spanish · Beginner Arabic · Proficient in Salesforce, SPSS, STATA, Google Analytics, Microsoft Office · Skilled in sound editing and podcast design