

The Road to Book Publication

Stage 1: Presubmission

ALE
service

Author
responsibility

Publisher
interaction

*We can begin helping scholars at any point along the book publication journey

Identify publishers

Publisher
recommendation report

Write your proposal

Compose your proposal draft

Proposal review

Content and language
review and guidance

Publisher outreach

Introduction to acquisitions editors

Academic Language
Experts

Elevate Your Research. Publish with Confidence.

The Road to Book Publication

Stage 2: Manuscript Review

ALE
service

Author
responsibility

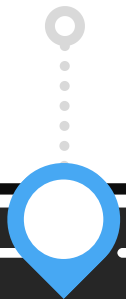

Publisher
interaction

*We can begin helping scholars at any point along the book publication journey

Publisher communication

Send your proposal in for review

Publisher review

Preliminary manuscript decision is made

Manuscript work

Full manuscript draft is completed

Language services

Including: translation, editing and publication support

Manuscript submission

Manuscript is submitted to the publisher

Academic
Language
Experts

Elevate Your Research. Publish with Confidence.

The Road to Book Publication

Stage 3: Manuscript Submission

ALE service Author responsibility Publisher interaction

*We can begin helping scholars at any point along the book publication journey

Peer review

Feedback and recommendations

Author services (cont.)

Including: editing, formatting and indexing

Publication

Your manuscript is published!

Dissemination

Post-publication services, including: press releases, white papers and executive summaries

